MEMORANDUM FOR NATIONAL FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: Special Assistant for Nuclear Proliferation Intelligence

1. With the establishment of the National Intelligence Council, the National Intelligence Officers will include those with specific regional accounts, the NIOs for General Purpose Forces and Strategic Programs, and a few NIOs at Large. Special purpose accounts, such as nuclear proliferation, will not be handled by a designated National Intelligence Officer. Instead, to provide a focal point for research and production on problems relating to the important subject of nuclear proliferation, I am, effective 1 January 1980, establishing the position of Special Assistant to DD/NFA for Nuclear Proliferation Intelligence.

25X1 2. [] is designated the Special Assistant for Nuclear Proliferation Intelligence. This is a collateral assignment in addition to his responsibilities as Chief of the Nuclear Energy Division in the Office of Scientific Intelligence. [] can be
25X1 reached on []

25X1 3. In his capacity as Special Assistant for Nuclear Proliferation Intelligence, [] is responsible for maintaining contacts with the nuclear proliferation constituency of the US Government, both in the Intelligence Community and without, and represents DD/NFA on nuclear proliferation matters in interagency fora as required. He assists the Chairman, National Intelligence Council, in the scheduling and preparation of interagency intelligence assessments on nuclear proliferation subjects. He also is responsible for planning, coordinating, and reviewing the production of NFAC intelligence assessments on nuclear proliferation matters.

25X1 4. [] who has been the Assistant NIO for Nuclear
25X1 Proliferation, is joining [] on a full-time basis to assist him
25X1 in his duties as Special Assistant for Nuclear Proliferation Intelligence.
Until further notice, [] can be reached on []
